Gabriel Flateman
Co-founder and Chief Technology Officer, Casper

Gabriel works to design systems and sites for the physical world. Under Gabriel's leadership, Casper's tech team pushes the limits to provide an unparalleled global experience, from discovery to delivery.

Casper's digital platform was awarded a TechCrunch Crunchie award for Best in E-commerce, and was an honoree for a Webby Award in Best Use of Animation or Motion Graphics. Casper was recently named one of Digiday's Most Innovative Companies. Gabriel earned a B.A. in Music Composition and Literary Theory from Brown University. He is also a composer and musician, and his work has been performed across the globe, from Cape Town to Carnegie Hall.